These Are Exciting Times at Food Glorious Food

It's only good news at FGF these days, with the upgrade of a globally recognized force in the food service industry now leading our team, and the addition of a prestigious new exclusive account.

DALLAS TX, April 24, 2019 | We are pleased to announce the appointment of Craig James to Vice President of Special Events for Culinaire, where he will be overseeing our off-premise catering company, Food Glorious Food.

Craig worked as a chef for a number of years at manors, hotels and restaurants in England before opening his own restaurant, Brasserie James, where diners enjoyed the best ingredients and the freshest produce, simply made. Television appearances include BBC Masterchef, BBC Celebrity Masterchef as a judge, Sky One Greatest Dishes in the World, Gordon Ramsey's show, and Good Morning Texas.

He emigrated to America in 2011 and joined the Dallas Museum of Art as General Manager and Executive Chef. Craig catered to a broad and at times exacting audience at the DMA such as Arts & Letters Live events, exhibition openings, Director's dinners, dinners for external clients in corporate, social and non-profit markets. He was then promoted to District Manager for Texas, Oklahoma and Georgia, where he led over 600 employees and managed business volumes in excess of $57 million. We are so very thrilled to have Craig on our executive team.

Additionally, we are proud to announce we have been selected as the exclusive catering partner for the brand new Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum downtown in the West End. Its airy, uplifting atrium, expansive courtyard, state-of-the-art auditorium, breezy terrace and several other beautiful spaces will be available for special events later this year. Please email Alma Van Horn, Director of Catering, if you wish to explore available dates for your next meeting or event. avanhorn@ciemail.com
